The GJMEF Vision... A Project History

Following the death of Mrs. Robert Garrett-Jacobs in 1936, the Mansion was willed to Dr. Jacobs for life. After his death in 1939, the Mansion was sold at auction to a funeral home but zoning prevented this use resulting in its sale to the Boumi Temple who occupied it until 1958. The Mansion was then sold to the City of Baltimore which planned to demolish the structure for an expansion of The Walters Art Gallery. The bond issue for the expansion failed and the Mansion sat vacant, unheated and deteriorating until the Engineers Club negotiated a lease with the City in 1961. The Club purchased it outright the next year and began a dedicated effort to preserve and maintain the historic structure. The Club, renamed as The Engineering Society of Baltimore, worked to rehabilitate the Mansion. However, the costly restoration work began with the establishment of the Garrett-Jacobs Endowment Fund which was incorporated as a charitable non-profit organization

A Near Sell-Out...

The August 19th Golf Outing

Held at the ever-popular Country Club of Maryland in Towson, 116 golfers (more than last year) competed in two different competitions: "Best Ball" and "Captains Choice." The golfers also had the use of the driving range and chipping & putting greens. They enjoyed a barbecued grilled lunch.

Each attendee received a $100 voucher at the Footjoy & Titleist vendor tent where they could select whatever they wanted such as shoes, putters, shirts, hats, visors, and umbrellas. The Outing netted a $31,000 + profit.

Mark your Calendar for August 18, 2014, next year's golf outing.

Friday, November 8th The Crush

Judgement at the Mansion is this year's theme. Inspired by the famous Judgment at Paris in 1976 that had California's best wines face off against France's best in a blind tasting. The California wines won. Guests will be tasting French versus USA wines blind, side-by-side, with the "winners" revealed at the end of the evening. Chef Koven's fabulous cuisine is designed to pair well with each.

Laurie Forster, "The Wine Coach" will present the educational class, "The Art of Blind Tasting" this year at 7:00 p.m. and 8:00 p.m. as well as emceeing the winners.

Cost: $75 per person for the General Tasting that starts at 7:30 p.m. Tickets are procured through Leach Wallace Associates at 410-579-8100 or kwindas@leachwallace.com.
